GERMAN MORALE FOUND TO BE LITTLE BROKEN

AMERICAN INFANTRYMAN BELIEVES HIMSELF TO BE BEST SOLDIER IN WORLD

Unbounded Confidence and Readiness to Joke Outstanding Factors in Makeup, Writes Correspondent.

BY MARTIN GREEN, (A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World, Recently Returned from France.)

The infantry, the infantry must be behind their ears. The infantry, the infantry, they say in the trenches.

They don't like the infantry in a bus-ness of thousands of years. I don't go to try to write a tribu-ute to the private in the army, the inconspicuous doughboy who finally wins the battles that the Generals plan and the minor officers direct.

The doughboy doesn't ask for sym-phony, his opinion of himself is printed above his head in the chant of the American foot soldier in France. In all truth, and I say it in a spirit of admiration and respect, the Amer-ican doughboy is abundantly satis-fied. He is honestly convinced that he is the best soldier in the world and that conviction goes a long way toward making him a good soldier.

Probably the American dough-boy's greatest asset, next to his be-lief in his own prowess and smart-ness, is his sense of humor. He is earnest when he has a job of fight-ing on hand, and serious enough, too, but the irrepressible American prop-ensity to jokes comes out frequently in the heat of battle.

The wounded in the hospitals while away the time "kidding" each other. At rest the doughboy's chief diversion is trying "to hang it on" somebody. If there is a funny twist to anything, no matter how mo-mentous, the doughboy grabs the twist.

"Doughboy" Good English. Right here it might be well to say something about the term doughboy, which is resented in some quarters outside the army. The name dough-boy is a time-honored army institu-tion of the army of any family news-paper. The Standard dictionary states that a doughboy is an infantryman, so called humorously by cavalrymen because of the big globular buttons on the front of their tunics.

Fighting foot soldiers do not mind being called doughboys and what they called service in other branch of the service would be deleted from the vocabulary of any family news-paper. In the British service the in-fantryman is called a "mudsiogger," the name springing naturally from trench conditions in Flanders, where the mud is worse than the Germans.

The most trying times the Amer-ican army has gone through in France were associated with trench warfare, and the trench warfare was when our soldiers were in the Lor-raine and Vosges districts. In that territory there is only 11 weeks in the year when thin ice does not form under the feet of the men, and large bodies of still water.

Short, gloomy days, long, frigid nights, torrents of rain, frequent furies of snow and fog that spring from the clouds and sweep through the deep valleys formed a combination calculated to depress the spirits of men fighting in a strange land. A sunny day was a rarity until the middle of May.

Ceal was quite unattainable and wood scarce, the supply system blew up occasionally. In camps behind the lines our soldiers were intensely grateful for the trenches every day regardless of weather conditions. During that period there was a lot of grumbling. Officers expect grum-bling under all conditions, but a soldier who does not grumble and kick is under suspicion of being ill.

10-Mile March on Ice. Notwithstanding the gloomy sur-roundings, the spirit of the common soldier never flagged. I saw a reg-iment in billets in a muddy, grimy little town one night in February. The men had marched 19 miles that day and camped with ice and cut up by transports.

They were under orders to take the road again the next day. The headquarters was roused, and the men were told to go to the front. The men were under orders to take the road again the next day. The headquarters was roused, and the men were told to go to the front.

"Padre," said one to a chaplain who had been a student at Stan-ford. "I guess 'I'm bad, huh. It took four Heines to bring me in!"

Why Bunch Could Not Kick. In another battle Frankie Burns of New York was carried to the front to the dressing station by two German prisoners. He introduced them as Weber and Fields. Some-body asked Frankie how he felt.

"Oh, he replied with a kick. I've got eight pieces of shrapnel in my leg."

Private Pat Grogan of New York was in the vicinity of bursting Ger-man shrapnel, shot up near Lun-ville in May. He went to the hospi-tal and assayed 42 pieces of metal when the surgeons missed his frame. Only July 13 he reported back to his company, and on the 15th, in a back area, almost five miles from the front, he got in the way of another German shrapnel and was pretty well peppered.

ARCHBISHOP, IRELAND DIES AT AGE OF 80

Succumbs to Heart Disease and Stomach Trouble; in Frail Health a Year.

By the Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 25.—Archbishop John Ireland of the St. Paul diocese of the Roman Catholic Church died at 3:55 o'clock here today, after an illness of heart disease and stomach trouble.

Archbishop Ireland recently celebrated his eightieth birthday. He was in frail health for a year. Last winter he went to Florida. When he returned early in the spring he suffered a breakdown, and for several days was at the point of death. After his physicians had practically abandoned hope for his recovery, he grew better and, almost immediately after he was able to leave his bed, he celebrated a solemn high mass at the cathedral.

Until last fall Archbishop Ireland took a prominent part in patriotic activities and his physicians at that time attributed his breakdown to overwork.

Sketch of Prelate's Life.
The Right Rev. John Ireland was born in Burnchurch, County Kilkenny, Ireland, Sept. 11, 1838. When he was a babe in arms his parents removed to St. Paul, and his early education was received in the Cathedral School in that city.

He was sent to France in 1853, and in September of that year, when he was 15, he entered the Petit Seminaire of Moxineux, finishing the eight-year course there in four years. He studied theology at the Grand Seminaire at Hyeres, returning to St. Paul in 1861, and being ordained a priest when he was little more than 23 years of age.

Upon the formation of the Fifth Minnesota Regiment young Ireland was made its chaplain, and served two years in the Civil War. Returning from the field, he was appointed rector of Cathedral Parish, the central and largest parish in St. Paul, and continued in that position until he was named as Coadjutor Bishop.

Archbishop Ireland was a man of great personal magnetism, a conversationalist of unvarying interest and of remarkable versatility. In church matters he was a liberal. About 1858 he conceived the idea of having the public and parochial schools merged, both Catholic and Protestant teachers being employed, and the school moneys divided. This was what was known in Minnesota as the "Fairbault plan," and was put in operation under the direction of the Archbishop. It was tried at both Fairbault and Stillwater.

The plan worked fairly well for a time, as much from its novelty as anything else, but there was friction. Protestants objected to teachers instructing children in the faith of any church. Next the trouble came over the Bible, the Catholics wanting to use it in part as a textbook, and the Protestants seeing that it read only at the beginning of the day or abolished altogether. The controversy grew in bitterness till both parties to it were glad to go back to the old regime.

Built Hill University.
The crowning educational work of Archbishop Ireland was the building of the Hill Seminary at Macalester, Minn. To this great enterprise James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, donated $500,000. The building of the seminary was completed in 1897. The school is in the hands of the archbishop, and is devoted to the education of young men for the priesthood.

Archbishop Ireland was also very active in securing the establishment of the Catholic University at Washington, and on his visit to Rome in 1887 was engaged, in conjunction with Bishop Keane, in drawing a report on this subject for the Pope.

Declared for Gold in 1896.
While he seldom mixed in political life in the sense of delivering addresses and making pleas for one party or the other, he was a man of pronounced opinions on all State and national topics, and exercised his influence in his own way, but the occasions were few on which he felt it his duty to break his rule of non-interference.

One of these occasions came in the fall of 1896. The campaign between McKinley and Bryan had only about three weeks to run, and 20 of the leading business men of St. Paul sent him a letter asking that he give to the public in his own way his views regarding the great question then before the citizens of the republic.

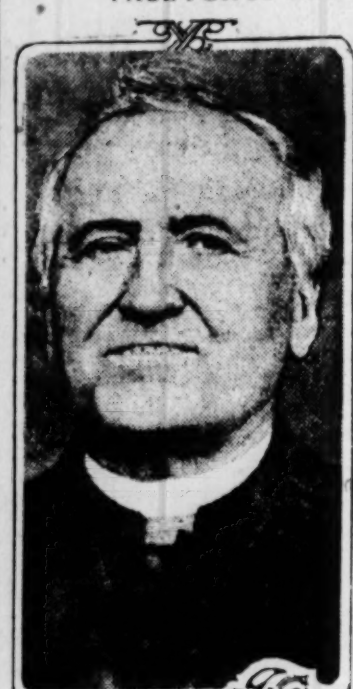

On Oct. 12 of that year, he sent to the country what was then regarded as one of the great addresses of the contest, which later ended as overwhelmingly for McKinley. In this address he came out strongly for the gold standard.

Caused Celebrated Controversy.
Ten years later, in 1906, the name of Archbishop Ireland was again drawn into a public controversy that attracted widespread attention. This was the controversy between President Roosevelt and Bellamy Storer, which ended in the latter being dismissed from his post as Ambassador to Austria because, as alleged, of the misdirected seal of Mrs. Storer in endeavoring to secure the elevation of Archbishop Ireland to the cardinalate.

Ambassador Storer declared that the endeavor to secure the red hat for the St. Paul prelate had the approval of President Roosevelt and that the plan was in pursuance of an understanding with the late President McKinley, who was said to have

PRINTERS ARE NON-ESSENTIAL

Convention Told How Paper May Be Saved.

By the Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, Sept. 25.—That the printing industry has not been declared an essential industry but that paper conditionally making has been declared essential, was stated by Thomas E. Donnelly, Washington, D. C., chief of the pulp and paper section of the war industries board, to members of the United Typothetae of America at its annual convention here today.

"Every printer in this country must realize he is an agent of the Government, ordered to save at least 25 per cent of the paper which the customer ordinarily would use," Donnelly said. "If you do that you are going to have enough paper to do all the printing that is required."

desired to reward Archbishop Ireland for his help in the campaign.

The statements of Mr. and Mrs. Storer were flatly denied by President Roosevelt and the controversy ended in the summary dismissal of Mr. Storer from the diplomatic service. Throughout the controversy Archbishop Ireland maintained a dignified silence and the general impression gained ground that he had been the innocent victim of his too zealous friends.

WOMEN INTERESTED IN NEW OFFICERS' CLUB

Will Occupy Quarters on Washington Boulevard—Meeting Called for Friday.

MANY of the representative women of the city are interested in the new patriotic venture which is just now taking form to be known as the Allied Officers' Club, which will occupy quarters at 3619-21 Washington boulevard. Mrs. Charles Cummings Collins has called a meeting of the Board of Managers to be held at her home, 20 Lenox place, on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, which includes besides Mrs. Collins, Mrs. D. R. Francis, Newton Wilson, D. J. Walker, Jr., Albert Brueggeman, John Dwight Filley, Harry Block, Robert Keiser, Walker Hill, Louis La Beaume, A. B. Ewing, C. E. Kinball, Herbert Parker, William Glasgow O'Fallon, Harvey Mudd, Frank Hamilton, F. E. Menner, C. M. Chesbro, Charles Parsons Pettus, Wallace Simmons, David R. Calhoun, E. D. Nims, L. Ray Carter, H. C. Barker, John Fowler and Misses Emilie Maffitt and May Foster.

Until now there has been no place where officers who are in our city for a short time could go for relaxation except hotel lobbies. It is true that most of the men's clubs are open to officers, but many do not know that and this club will endeavor to give officers in our city a homelike place to go with reading and writing rooms, an attractive lounge where pool and music can be enjoyed, which they can feel has been especially provided for them. Bookcases, rugs, desks, tables and chairs, a piano and phonograph are needed and any one desiring to lend these articles or donate them can notify Mrs. C. C. Collins, Forest 388, or Mrs. D. after Walker Jr., Cabany 192. A visiting board of prominent men will soon be selected and it is hoped to have the club ready for occupancy within the next two weeks.

REPORT IS MADE ON THE CASH-AND-CARRY MILK PLAN

Results Differ in Various Localities, but the Pevely Dairies Show Increases.

A report has been made to the local office of the Food Administration on the workings of the cash and carry plan of milk sales, recently instituted by the dairies, with 11 cents a quart as the price. Mrs. A. A. Flanders, who made an inquiry, reported that the results varied in different localities, the best results having been obtained where the dairy was showing an interest in the matter.

The Pevely Dairy, it was stated, shows a steady increase in cash and carry sales at both its stations. The St. Louis Dairy Co. has but a small trade at Twentieth and Pine streets, but serves nearly 300 customers a day at King's highway and Mineral avenue. The Union Dairy serves about 100 a day. At the Gratiot Dairy, the report says, nothing is being done. The sales at the six Pevely Milk Commission stations are increasing amounts.

The Food Administration is endeavoring to keep parents from cutting down the milk supply of children. It has issued a bulletin advising that one quart of milk be provided daily for each child, and one-third of a quart for each grown person. For a grown person, cheese can take the place of milk, a pound of one-third of a quart of milk.

The Pevely Dairy, it was stated, shows a steady increase in cash and

3 WEEKS TO RAISE 6 BILLIONS FOR FOURTH WAR LOAN

Issue Is Largest Ever Offered by This Government or Any Other in the History of the World.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Six billion dollars is the amount of the Fourth Liberty Loan. The country will be asked to subscribe this huge sum, the largest ever offered by any Government in the history of the world, in three weeks, as compared to the usual campaign of a month which has attended the other three American war loans.

The campaign will open Saturday and will continue until midnight Oct. 19. The message of the loan will be carried to every city, town, hamlet and crossroads settlement by speakers, posters and other means. American soldiers bearing the scars of battle received on the fields of France and members of the famous French Foreign Legion will assist in the campaign, while war trophies taken from the Germans by Gen. Pershing's men will be exhibited in the principal cities and towns. With the announcement last night by the Treasury Department of the total of the loan and of the quota proportioned each Federal district, the quotas of the states, cities and towns will be determined before the drive gets under way.

Following are the quotas and percentages of the total by Federal reserve districts:

DISTRICT	Per Cent	Amount
New York	14	$840,000,000
Chicago	14	$840,000,000
Cleveland	10	$600,000,000
Boston	8	$480,000,000
Philadelphia	8	$480,000,000
San Francisco	8	$480,000,000
Richmond	4	$240,000,000
St. Louis	4	$240,000,000
Kansas City	4	$240,000,000
Minneapolis	4	$240,000,000
Atlanta	4	$240,000,000
Dallas	4	$240,000,000
Portland	4	$240,000,000
San Antonio	4	$240,000,000
Seattle	4	$240,000,000
Wash. D. C.	4	$240,000,000

The three Liberty Loans thus far collected were oversubscribed, the total subscriptions being $12,352,778,800. Of this amount $3,033,250,350 was subscribed to the first loan and $4,617,522,200 to the second loan and $4,700,019,650 to the third. The first loan was for $2,000,000,000, the second and third for $3,000,000,000 each.

To Safeguard Liberty Bonds Against "Wildcat" Security Trades.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—At the meeting of the trust company section of the American Bankers' Association national convention here a committee was appointed to report back a constructive plan of action looking to the protection of property loan bond purchasers. John W. Drum, chairman, said the best statistics available indicated that, since the first Liberty Loan was floated, $400,000,000 worth of Liberty Bonds had been exchanged for non-interest bearing securities. It was toward the checking of this evil, Drum said, that the efforts of the committee would be directed.

McAdoo Outlines Government's Plan for Fourth Liberty Loan.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Secretary McAdoo in an address here last night, outlining the Government's plan for the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, made a special appeal for the subscription of corporations and wealthy individuals, as returns from the Third Liberty Loan indicated that wealthy corporations and persons of large means had not responded "commensurately with their abilities to help." He pointed out that of the 18,000,000 Americans who subscribed for the last loan, only 22,500, including corporations, bought bonds in excess of $10,000.

"It would be preposterous," he said, "to say that there are only 22,500 men, women and corporations in America able to lend more than $10,000 each to their Government in Liberty Bonds."

McAdoo condemned the practice of "swindlers and unscrupulous and unpatriotic people, who, contrary to the urgent request of the Treasury Department, had induced holders of Liberty Bonds to exchange them for stocks or investments of doubtful value."

He pointed out that these operations forced the Treasury to buy the bonds thus thrown upon the market, in order to protect the market and the credit of the Government.

"Thus the Treasury's available resources from the loan," he declared, "are depleted and forced in unworthy channels, oftentimes in wildest enterprises, to the injury of the American people and to the detriment of the war. We must create a healthy public opinion which will repress such practices. We must provide the machinery and the means through which those who wish to sell their bonds may do so and get the highest possible price for them, while at the same time protecting the innocent investor."

Applauded by a crowd which filled Carnegie Hall, McAdoo said in part: "This money is needed to carry on the war. We cannot lick the Kaiser without it. We cannot restore peace to the world and re-establish liberty and democracy without it. The huge amounts expended by America in this war are not wholly used for destructive purposes. Great sums are used for constructive work which will be of permanent value to the American people."

"We are building a great merchant marine. Upon completion it will be the largest, most efficient and modern merchant fleet in the world. The wharves and terminal facilities we are constructing in America for the accommodation of this merchant marine are an essential part of it. "Our commerce after the war will be facilitated by these great national undertakings, and the money used for these purposes is an investment of immeasurable value to the American people."

Loans to the Allies.

"The loans to the allied Governments are represented by obligations of great nations who will in time repay them. Out of the $30,000,000,000 of appropriations made by the Congress for the financial year 1919, it is probable that $8,000,000,000 to $9,000,000,000 will represent loans to the allied Governments and expenditures for ships, shipyards, docks, wharves and other facilities, which will be salvaged to the American people."

Seventh Issue of Certificates Will Be for $500,000,000.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The seventh, and probably the last issue of certificates of indebtedness, preceding the fourth Liberty Loan, announced last night by the Treasury, will be for $500,000,000, dated Oct. 1, maturing Jan. 30, bearing 4½ per cent interest, and having the same terms as similar past issues. Subscription books will close Oct. 8.

USED RESINOL FOR BAD SKIN TROUBLE

Considers Recovery Remarkable

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 14.—"For almost six years I suffered from a severe case of skin trouble which began with itching and intense pain in my knee. Then my leg became inflamed and sores broke out, which itched and burned terribly day and night. I tried many remedies, but gained no relief. I even spent six months in the hospital, and the doctors wanted to amputate my leg. At last I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and obtained relief from the first application. My knee is now well, and I consider the cure remarkable, as my trouble was very serious."

"La Creole" Hair Dressing is the original hair color restorer, and not a dye. Applying it to your hair and scalp revives the color glands of nature, and restores your hair to a beautiful dark shade or to its natural color. It is the only hair restorer that gradually darkens all your gray or faded hair in this way. No matter how gray, prematurely gray, faded or lusterless your hair might be, "La Creole" Hair Dressing will make it beautifully dark, soft and lustrous. "La Creole" Hair Dressing will not stain the scalp, wash or rub off, and is easily applied by simply combing or brushing through the hair. Don't be misled into buying some cheap preparation.

USE "LA CREOLE" HAIR DRESSING for gray or faded hair and retain the appearance of youth. Also used by gentlemen to impart an even dark color to their gray hair, beard or mustache. For sale by Wolff-Wilson Drug Stores, Judge & Dolph Drug Stores and all good drug stores everywhere. MERCY TO SPY, INJURY TO SOLDIER, T. R. SAYS

Three Methods of Treating Pacifists and War Objectors Are Outlined.

By THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
(By Courtesy of the Kansas City Star.)
MERCY to the German spy or pacifist slacker in America is a foul injustice to the American soldier in France and to his brother, who is preparing to go to France. Our Government has been altogether too weak in dealing with the pacifist slacker and so-called conscientious objectors. It has actually issued elaborate instructions for and to these creatures, practically telling them how to escape doing the duty which all patriotic Americans are proudly eager to perform.

There is not the slightest excuse for such weakness. No man has any right to remain in a free country like ours if he refuses, whether conscientiously or unconscientiously, to do the duties of peace and of war which are necessary if it is to be kept free.

The true lovers of peace recognize their duty to fight for freedom. The Society of Friends has furnished the same large proportion of soldiers for this war that it did for the Civil War.

How to Treat Slackers.
It is all wrong to permit conscientious objectors to remain in camp or military posts or to go back to their homes. They should be treated in one of three ways:

1. Demand of them military service, except the actual use of weapons with intent to kill, and if they refuse to render this service, treat them as criminals and imprison them at hard labor.

2. Put them in labor battalions and send them to France behind the lines, where association with soldiers might have a missionary effect on them and cause them to forget their present base creed and rise to worthy levels in an atmosphere of self-sacrifice and of service and struggle for great ideals.

3. If both of the above procedures are regarded as too drastic, intern them with alien enemies and send them permanently out of the country as soon as possible.

As for the spies, there is no question as to the treatment needed. They should be shot or hanged. They are public enemies and this is wartime and they should no more be dealt with by the civil law than the enemy armies should be so dealt with. The German spies and secret agents and dynamiters and murderers in this country are as much a part of Germany as the soldiers of Von Hindenburg. Bismarck employed 30,000 of their kind to dismember Germany's foes 50 years ago, and now Germany is employing them by the hundred thousand. They are as formidable as the visible German army. It was these German spies, agents and propagandists who, in 1917, disintegrated and destroyed Russia and inflicted a crushing disaster on Italy and conducted the most dangerous intrigue in France, aided and abetted the British pacifists.

400,000 in U. S. Is Estimated.

In this country Senator Overman has estimated their number at 400,000, and Mr. Flynn, the recently resigned chief of the secret service, has put them at a quarter of a million. Our official Government reports have shown that in obedience to orders from the German Government they have carried on in all hostile, and even in neutral, countries a systematic warfare by means of aiding pacifist movements, inciting strikes, fomenting disloyalty and employing direct action by dynamiters and murderers. They have received aid and co-operation, conscientiously and unconscientiously, by many evils in pacifist and Bolshevik societies and in organizations like the I. W. W. and Nonpartisan League.

The activities of the German spies, agents and sympathizers vary from mere disloyal utterances, which the Attorney-General of the United States has stated to be the cause of most of the disaster in this country, up to seeking to corrupt our soldiers and practicing sabotage in our munitions works and factories for war materials.

Punishment Urged.
All offenders of the latter type, wherever committed, can under the existing law be tried by courtmartial and executed, and this is the proper course to follow. It is the course followed under Lincoln's administration, which is one of the reasons why Lincoln's administration differed so markedly from Buchanan's.

The former chief of the secret service says that there is a quarter of a million of these German spies and agents in this country. We have ample law to warrant these being punished with death by summary courtmartial, under military law as military enemies. We have been at war 18 months, but not one spy has thus been punished. This means grave remissness in the performance of our duty.

DRY GOODS MERGER PLANNED
By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Formation of a war service committee of the retail dry goods and department store trade is expected to result from a conference to be held here Oct. 2 and 3 at the call of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Establishment of such a committee uniting the nearly 40,000 retail dry goods and department stores of the country would provide a body with which the Government can deal in connection with problems of conservation such as Christmas buying.

PARADE WILL PRECEDE START OF BARGE LINE

Mayor's Daughter to Sponsor
Tugboat Which Departs
Saturday at 3 P. M.

With music and waving of flags and cheering, the Government barge service between St. Louis and New Orleans will be inaugurated Saturday afternoon, when the tugboat Nokomia, with three barges, will leave the St. Louis wharf.

The celebration will begin with a luncheon at 12:30 at the Planters Hotel, under the joint auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Exchange, the Manufacturers' Association and the Rotary Club, to which the public is invited.

James E. Smith, president of the Mississippi Valley Waterways Association, will preside. Speeches will be delivered by Mayor Kiel, Miss Edna Kiel will break a bottle of Mississippi River water on the tugboat and it will start officially at 3 p. m. for the South. Before actually getting away, however, it will go to the east side, and will depart two hours later.

The boat will be decorated with flags and bunting and under the United States flag will fly the flag of the United States Railroad Administration, bearing the letters U. S. R. A.

"St. Louis to the Sea."

Among the signs which it will display will be: "Use the River and Win the War," "St. Louis to the Sea," and "St. Louis to New Orleans."

The three barges will have a combined capacity of 2200 tons. The only stop scheduled is at Memphis, where additional barges will be picked up. Another boat and barges will depart the following Saturday, and thereafter there will be weekly sailings.

List of Shippers.
The shippers will include the Brown Shoe Co., the Certain-teed Products Corporation, roofing; S. Roskowitz & Son, bottles; Curlee Clothing Co., Best-Clymer Preserving Co., 17 tons of preserves; J. C. DEFENSE COUNCIL PEACE URGED Secretary Saunders Gets Second Telegram From National Headquarters.

A second telegram from the headquarters of the National Council of Defense, relative to the deadlock in the Missouri Council has been received by Secretary Saunders. The telegram, signed A. P. Fleming, chief of the State Council section, urges that differences be composed immediately.

The State Council will meet tomorrow at Sedalia, and it is expected that it will reach a definite settlement of the difficulty caused by the statement attacking Joseph W. Folk, which was sent out by Secretary Saunders on the eve of the senatorial primary. Saunders says the attack was made at the insistent instigation of Gov. Gardner. William H. Lee, treasurer, has demanded the removal of Saunders, and has refused to approve any expenditures while he continues to act as secretary.

ST. LOUIS DOCTORS ENROLL

Nearly All of the 1800 Have Offered Their Services.

All but fewer than twenty of the 1800 physicians in St. Louis have enrolled in the Volunteer Medical Service Corps, National Council of Defense, Dr. A. F. Koetter, secretary of the local division, said today.

In a joint letter Edward P. Davis, president of the Volunteer Medical Service Corps, and Franklin Martin, chairman of the General Medical Board, National Council of Defense, urged committeemen to favor no movement that would impair a medical man's standing in his local, State or national society because of his refusal to enroll.

Dr. Koetter said that in view of the policy adopted by the National Council of Defense no charges would be preferred against delinquents by the St. Louis Medical Society. He said that the Executive Committee in charge of the enrollment in Missouri still hopes to see a 100 per cent showing by St. Louis physicians.

"LIVED UP" $50,000 BEQUEST

Mrs. Pauline T. Collins, 4345 Maryland avenue, yesterday obtained a divorce from Monroe S. Collins, a former realty operator, on grounds of desertion and non-support.

Collins, it was testified, failed to support his wife and she lived up more than $50,000 she inherited from her father in maintaining the family. Some of the money went for the education of the children, and the gas, electric light and water had been shut off in her home. Custody of a child, Robert Lindell Collins, 5 years old, was awarded to her.

NEW SOCIAL LECTURE LEAGUE

"It reads like a Story Book," is the way one of America's most respected married society leaders opened the subject of her remarks on Her Country at her home on the Hudson just outside of New York City.

"I have been a great outdoor enthusiast all my life and I made it a point to do without my hat whenever possible, both in the daytime as well as evening. Jack, my husband, some years ago remarked that I would have to give up my running about bareheaded now that I was getting a bit gray. But I am not to be outdone simply by a few or many gray hairs. I went to the most reliable authority I could get on the subject. The result was avoided putting a lot of harmful dyes on my hair, and I began using a Color Restorer called Q-Ban, and in no time Jack had to confess he didn't understand how my hair got so beautiful. Was I dressing it different, or was it just the Q-Ban? You may rest assured I haven't told him anything about it, although very often remarks my hair certainly does look fine. Q-Ban is our little secret."—ADVERTISEMENT.

Garland's

Our Regular Semi-Yearly DRESS DAY AND A STARTLING SALE

AS regular (though not on the same date) as the semi-annual equinox—which has just passed, comes Garland's twice-yearly Dress Day. In former years and normal times this event came in October and March. The March Dress Day came around this year at its regular schedule time, but the Fall season conditions were different, upsetting all manufacturing and market conditions—as this event will show.

THE dress manufacturers advanced their season almost a month, and as a result, their Fall business was over a month earlier than formerly, and they were ready to close out their stocks on hand a month earlier. Their stocks were heavier than ever before, owing to an anticipated shortage of materials. These combined conditions forced down prices as never before, and as no merchant or manufacturer dreamed, a month ago, possible. We took advantage of the opportunity and bought heavily, at big price-concessions.

Charming little frocks of satin, of cloth, of taffeta, designed and made up in the most becoming of new styles, the kind of Dresses one would expect to see only at much higher prices—and, in fact, only for these manufacturers being ready to close out all stock on hand, would they price under $20—the majority of them would be selling at $25.00 to $29.50.	Here one can choose from so many distinct and original models that we can't imagine any woman not finding the dress of her particular type and choice. Rich satins in a dozen or more styles and scores of trimming effects. Serges that are so scarce at any price. Taffetas that are none too plentiful and will be less plentiful a month later. All sizes.	"How charming is that overseas blue satin," and "isn't that navy serge with braid-embroidered girdle a dream?"—and many other such remarks we can almost hear now, before the sale begins. Taffetas, too, will come in for their share of admiration, and the many trimming ideas that'll be admired. Over 25 styles, in the various materials, including Georgette combinations. All sizes.	Here we feel that the climax in style beauty has been reached, if we only had words at our command to describe them all. But just picture to yourself the kind of Dresses usually shown at the average store at $50.00 and $60.00—and at Garland's at $40.00 to $49.50, and you'll have the correct picture of what these Dresses in this sale at $25.00 are. Every one an individualized type, designed by an artist. All sizes.

Plan of Campaign

Fourth Liberty Loan

in the

City of Saint Louis

Opens September 28th

Read This Carefully
It explains where and how your subscription should be made to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Canvassers will wear this badge.

Our Fourth Liberty Loan will call for the largest sum of money ever borrowed at one time by the United States Government. The huge expansion of our army, our navy, our air fleets, our merchant marine, our munition manufacturing—in a word, or part in the war—calls for the expenditure of vast sums of money, the largest part of which must be obtained as a loan from our loyal citizens—men, women and children.

To raise our quota of the Loan promptly we must have the united support of all loyal St. Louisans; and it is believed that such support will be most readily obtained by explaining, briefly, the plan of canvass adopted.

The Entire City Will Be Canvassed

The city has been divided out in sales districts. Each district will have allotted to it a sufficient number of workers to cover it thoroughly. All residences, apartments, hospitals, hotels and schools will be visited by women canvassers. All offices, mercantile establishments, manufactories and other business institutions will be visited by men canvassers. No one will be overlooked.

These canvassers are devoting their time to Liberty Loan work without compensation, and all patriotic citizens will accord them courteous consideration. They will be provided with proper credentials, showing that they are duly authorized representatives of the Liberty Loan Organization. Every canvasser is instructed to obtain a satisfactory subscription, or a definite refusal to subscribe, from every person in his or her territory. No person can avoid saying "Yes" or "No."

Every person engaged in business or a profession, either as employer or employee, is requested to give his subscription to the canvasser assigned to the district in which the business is located. Those not engaged in business should hand their subscriptions to the canvasser for the district in which they reside.

Any subscriptions received by the banks will be turned over to the Liberty Loan Organization for credit of the proper districts.

Each canvasser will be given credit for all subscriptions received from his or her district, even if such subscriptions are turned in by other parties. No variation will be permitted from this rule, and subscribers are requested not to attempt to favor friends at the expense of the district to which credit is due.

A Record Will Be Made of Each Call

Each canvasser will make a report on each individual, firm or corporation called upon, whether or not a subscription is received. These report cards will be turned in each night to the Liberty Loan Organization.

Liberty Loan Buttons and Honor Flags

Each subscriber to one or more Liberty Bonds gets one Liberty Loan Button and one Honor Flag. Only one button and one flag to each subscriber. The Honor Flags are for display in windows of homes or offices.

Blank Checks

Canvassers will be provided with blank checks, which can be drawn on any St. Louis bank, for use of subscribers who have neither cash nor checks at hand when called upon. All checks must be made payable to St. Louis Liberty Loan Organization.

Terms of Payment

Subscribers for Liberty Loan Bonds may pay for them all at once, or in weekly or monthly installments. Canvassers will be glad to explain, in detail, the installment plan. The initial payment on each bond purchased on the weekly payment plan will be eight per cent. On all bonds purchased on any other plan of payment the initial payment will be ten per cent.

Places for Installment Payments

All first payments must be made to the official canvasser.

Subsequent payments (except those made on the weekly payment plan) will be paid through the bank designated by the subscriber.

Weekly payment plan—The weekly payments on bonds bought on the weekly payment coupon plan may be made through any St. Louis bank or trust company, or through any of the many authorized places of payment scattered throughout the city. These places will be designated by the Liberty Loan Organization.

Buy Fourth Liberty Bonds

Be a Volunteer

This is the way to qualify as a VOLUNTEER:

Sit down and quietly think over the sacrifices others are making for the cause. Of the men who have given up good jobs and pleasant homes to devote their time and services to their country. Of the men who are willingly suffering hardship, injury, death itself, in the cause of Liberty.

Then let your conscience tell you candidly just what you ought to do in the purchase of Fourth Liberty Bonds.

Be ready to do it when the Liberty Loan canvasser calls. Have your first payment ready to hand him; be ready to sign up the subscription card. And, in the name of our soldiers who are dying for you in France, don't try to "get by" with a smaller subscription than you ought to make! Be honest with your conscience—with your country—with yourself!

The Dusty Shaft of Light

The pure, clean sunshine that streams through the tree-tops of a mountain forest—contrast it with the dusty beam of light that comes through your window. The woods are healthful mainly because they are free from dust. Cities are nurseries of disease because they are dust-enveloped.

Heed well the lesson in the dusty shaft of light. Contemplate the menace of its uncountable dust particles. Every breeze—every footstep—every turning wheel—every broom-sweep keeps the germ-laden dust in never-ending circulation.

Remember that dust is the most efficient germ carrier known.

Lysol

Disinfectant

Protect your home with Lysol Disinfectant. It annihilates all germ life at the instant of application.

It is economical; a 50c bottle added to water makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons. Get a bottle today. Make systematic household disinfection a regular duty. Use the Lysol solution in scrubbing water and in garbage-cans, sinks, drains, and dark sunless corners.

Take these simple, easy precautions and you will make a better fight against disease than it can make against you. Lysol is invaluable for personal hygiene. See instructions with package.

$12,000 DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND GOAL

State Employees Getting $100 a Month Asked for 3 Per Cent of Year's Pay.

The Democratic and Republican political organizations have begun an active campaign for funds, the Democrats devoting their attention principally to soliciting from State employees, nearly all of whom are Democrats, and the Republicans from city employees, nearly all of whom are Republicans.

William J. Fleming, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, has sent to the executive head of each State department and institution, with the exception of educational institutions, a request that each employee in the department receiving more than $100 a month contribute an amount equal to 3 per cent of one year's salary.

Requests from party committees in the past have been considered in the nature of assessments and few political employees have dared deny the request. Members of the Democratic State Committee have this year expressed the fear that employees will not feel themselves obligated.

Three Per Cent of Salary Requested, Fleming, discussing the collection of the fund, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"Our Government is necessarily a Government of political parties, and political parties to exist must have funds. We have asked every department head to request a contribution of 3 per cent of one year's salary from employees under him, our position being that if the Democratic party was not in power these employees would not have the jobs they have. The work they do could be done by almost anybody, and they owe their positions to their adherence to the Democratic party. We have not asked contributions from any employee receiving less than $100 a month because we believe nobody can pay his necessary living expenses on less than that amount."

"In the past it has sometimes been the practice to seek contributions from employees of the State University and normal schools, but the present committee has taken the position that teachers in educational institutions are not employed because of political connections, and that there is no reason why they should be expected to contribute to any campaign fund."

$12,000 Expected.

"The committee realizes that this is a time when the demands upon all persons are heavy, but it believes that the election of a Democratic United States Senator, who will stand steadfastly with President Wilson, is a matter of great importance, and that the committee would be derelict in its duty if it did not make every effort to elect Gov. Folk. The campaign fund, of course, will not be used solely in the interest of the senatorial candidate, but will be used for the entire Democratic ticket."

"Since the last election we have maintained a permanent organization, and there have been contributions from some State employees. Those who have contributed will be credited with such amounts as they have given, and thus the amount expected from them at this time will be less than 3 per cent."

"We expect to get about $12,000 under this system, though 3 per cent of state salaries would be about $16,000. We know that many will not contribute. The money will be divided between the Democratic national, state and city committees."

Schnoll's Letter. John Schnoll, chairman of the Republican City Committee, has sent out a letter to city employees and others, asking for contributions. In his letter, he said:

"We feel justified in believing that the Government would be strengthened and that the interests of the nation would be better safeguarded if the present Republican Congressmen from St. Louis are returned to Congress, and if Judge Seiden P. Spencer is elected to the United States Senate."

"We are accordingly appealing to those who believe our judgment is right and who are willing to assist us by voluntary subscription. If you are so minded, will you kindly help us by mailing your check for as large a sum as you can give."

That there is opposition among State employees to the assessment is indicated in an editorial written by J. Kelly Pool and published in a Jefferson City paper, insisting that all persons should use their money to buy Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps and for other war activities, instead of giving it to political party committees. Pool is a member of the State Prison Board and was defeated in 1916 for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State.

The Dusty Shaft of Light

The pure, clean sunshine that streams through the tree-tops of a mountain forest—contrast it with the dusty beam of light that comes through your window. The woods are healthful mainly because they are free from dust. Cities are nurseries of disease because they are dust-laden.

Heed well the lesson in the dusty shaft of light. Contemplate the menace of its uncountable dust particles. Every breeze—every footstep—every turning wheel—every broom-sweep keeps the germ-laden dust in never-ending circulation.

Remember that dust is the most efficient germ carrier known.

Lysol

Disinfectant

Protect your home with Lysol Disinfectant. It annihilates all germ life at the instant of application.

It is economical; a 50c bottle added to water makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons. Get a bottle today. Make systematic household disinfection a regular duty. Use the Lysol solution in scrubbing-water and in garbage-cans, sinks, drains, and dark sunless corners.

Take these simple, easy precautions and you will make a better fight against disease than it can make against you. Lysol is invaluable for personal hygiene. See instructions with package.

$12,000 DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND GOAL

State Employees Getting $100 a Month Asked for 3 Per Cent of Year's Pay.

The Democratic and Republican political organizations have begun an active campaign for funds, the Democrats devoting their attention principally to soliciting from State employees, nearly all of whom are Democrats, and the Republicans from city employees, nearly all of whom are Republicans.

William J. Fleming, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, has sent to the executive head of each State department and institution, with the exception of educational institutions, a request that each employee in the department receiving more than $100 a month contribute an amount equal to 3 per cent of one year's salary.

Requests from party committees in the past have been considered in the nature of assessments and few political employees have dared deny the request. Members of the Democratic State Committee have this year expressed the fear that employees will not feel themselves obligated.

Three Per Cent of Salary Requested. Fleming, discussing the collection of the fund, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"Our Government is necessarily a Government of political parties, and political parties to exist must have funds. We have asked every department head to request a contribution of 3 per cent of one year's salary from employees under him, our position being that if the Democratic party was not in power these employees would not have the jobs they have. The work they do could be done by almost anybody, and they owe their positions to their adherence to the Democratic party. We have not asked contributions from any employee receiving less than $100 a month because we believe nobody can pay his necessary living expenses on less than that amount."

"In the past it has sometimes been the practice to seek contributions from employees of the State University and normal schools, but the present committee has taken the position that teachers in educational institutions are not employed because of political connections, and that there is no reason why they should be expected to contribute to any campaign fund."

$12,000 Expected. The committee realizes that this is a time when the demands upon all persons are heavy, but it believes that the election of a Democratic United States Senator, who will stand steadfastly with President Wilson, is a matter of great importance, and that the committee would be derelict in its duty if it did not make every effort to elect Gov. Folk. The campaign fund, of course, will not be used solely in the interest of the senatorial candidate, but will be used for the entire Democratic ticket.

"Since the last election we have maintained a permanent organization, and there have been contributions from some State employees. Those who have contributed will be credited with such amounts as they have given, and thus the amount expected from them at this time will be less than 3 per cent."

We expect to get about $12,000 under this system, though 3 per cent of state salaries would be about $16,000. We know that many will not contribute. The money will be divided between the Democratic national, state and city committees."

Schmoll's Letter. John Schmoll, chairman of the Republican City Committee, has sent out a letter to city employees and others, asking for contributions. In his letter, he said:

"We feel justified in believing that the Government would be strengthened and that the interests of the nation would be better safeguarded if the present Republican Congressmen from St. Louis are returned to Congress, and if Judge Seiden P. Spencer is elected to the United States Senate. "We are accordingly appealing to those who believe our judgment is right and who are willing to assist us by voluntary subscription. If you are so minded, will you kindly help us by mailing your check for as large a sum as you can give."

That there is opposition among State employees to the assessment is indicated in an editorial written by J. Kelly Pool and published in a Jeffersonian City paper, insisting that all persons should use their money to buy Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps and for other war activities, instead of giving it to political party committees. Pool is a member of the State Prison Board and was defeated in 1916 for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State.

An Extensive Showing of Women's and Misses' Fashionable Winter Coats and Suits

Specialty Priced at $55.00

The hundreds and hundreds of garments assembled at this price will make selection surprisingly simple, so varied and appropriate are the styles. As for the price, you will quickly see what splendid values they are at first glance.

The Coats recommend themselves, particularly for the happy combination of style and service giving qualities. Many are lavishly fur trimmed, others entirely of self material. All-wool materials are employed, including velvet, broadcloth, pompon, silver-tone, plush and other novelty weaves in many of the new Fall and Winter shades, as well as the ever popular blues and blacks. The Coats are handsomely lined.

The Suits depict many of the newest and most distinctive Fall and Winter styles, including tailored models, finished with braid, buttons and silk arrow heads, as well as dressier styles whose charm lies mainly in the large fur collars and uniquely designed belts, with all sorts of odd fastenings. These Suits are fashioned of tricotine, velvet, broadcloth, silver-tone, burella, serge and other novelty suitings in favorite shades for Fall and Winter.

The Penitentiary Team May Meet the Stars. Hurrah! The Stars and Stripes Forever!

FORMER WISCONSIN PLAYER WILL HELP BILL KEISER'S COACH

Armand Fisher, Member of 1913
Badger Eleven, Added to St.
Louis U. Corps.

FRESHMAN RULE WAIVED

Board Agrees to Suspend Ban
for Duration of War; Others May Follow.

A third man has been added to the football coaching corps of St. Louis University, which at present is composed of Ernest C. Quigley and Jimmy Hordorn. Father H. A. Hermans, director of athletics at the Grand Avenue institution, announced this morning that Armand Fisher, who is a junior in the medical department of the university, will be out next week to assist Quigley in handling the freshmen.

Fisher is a former University of Wisconsin athlete. He won three letters while attending the Badger school, one of which was earned in football and another in basketball. Fisher also played on the Wisconsin eleven of 1913 and was at this position when the Badgers defeated Eloy Clark's Illinois eleven, 3 to 0, in that year.

Father Hermans stated Fisher had been regarded purely as a basketball player and had been counted upon to assist in running out a five for the freshmen this season. That he also will be available for football is pleasant news for followers of the blue and white.

Life Freshmen Ban.
St. Louis University also has decided officially to permit freshmen to play football this year. Father Hermans placed the freshmen question before the Board of Regents and after pointing out that Washington U. would be the only school in the annual Thanksgiving day game, the board decided to suspend the freshman ban for the duration of the war.

This will enhance the quality of material Coach Quigley will have at St. Louis this fall. Most notable among the first-year men eligible under the new rule are Dennis, guard, who won his letter at Kansas U. last year, Thornton, Loyola Academy half-back, and Guhman, who played half-back and tackle for the Undergrads. Numerous others will be in line.

Coach Quigley will arrive here tomorrow or Friday, according to a telegram from the coach received by Father Hermans yesterday. It is also considered a certainty that the game with McKendree will be played for a week from Saturday, while the game with McKendree will be played, unless Quigley approves it. Father Hermans already has notified the Lebanon authorities, that St. Louis U. will hardly have sufficient time to prepare for the contest.

Army Officer States Views.
Col. R. I. Rees of the General Staff, in charge of the Student Army Training Corps, has endorsed the decision started by coaches of the Big Ten and Missouri Valley conferences, to waive the freshman ban for the duration of the war.

Col. Rees takes the view that football and other sports should be broadened in scope as a consequence of the war. He is a supporter of the war effort and believes that the war will be won by the use of the arms and the use of the mind.

SEMI-PRO BASEBALL HEADS HOLD MEETING TODAY
CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 25.—The Executive Board of the National Baseball Federation is scheduled to meet here today to discuss plans for preserving semi-professional baseball during the war and to attempt to arbitrate the dispute between the Standard Parts team of Cleveland and the Toledo Rail Lights.

The meeting is the result of a suggestion by Clayton Townes, a member of the board, that an effort be made to prevent the National championship games going by default. Townes says the War Athletic Activities Board desires some action taken to provide semi-professional ball and that preliminary plans will be arranged at today's meeting.

CAMPS FUNSTON AND PIKE TO MEET IN GAMES HERE
The baseball teams of Camps Funston and Pike will meet in a series of two games at Sportsman's Park here Saturday and Sunday, according to an announcement today by Sgt. Gluskin, advance agent for the Camp Pike aggregation. The games will be under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service.

Camp Pike already has won two games from Funston. Many St. Louis boys are in Pike's lineup, among them being Muddy Rust, Vincent War, Ray Richmond and Joe Slattery. Oscar Horstman, former Cardinal pitcher, also is one of the members of Pike's team.

Kid Regan, St. Louis Sailor, Makes Good in Eastern Rings

Accident Causes First Knockout of Career to Be Registered
Against Him, but He Comes Back With Decisive Victory
—May Meet French Featherweight in Near Future.

CHARLES CROUSE, known to followers of boxing here as "Kid Regan," is making good in the dual role of boxer and sailor. Less than a month after he enlisted in the navy here and was sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Crouse was assigned to active duty. He is now detailed on a submarine chaser at an Atlantic port.

Crouse, or Regan, has made rapid strides to the fore in Eastern boxing circles. Since he left St. Louis he has engaged in about a dozen contests and has lost but one. This was one of two bouts with Jack Courtney, which went into the records as a knockout, but was really an accident, as Crouse explains in a letter to a St. Louis friend.

May Get Good Match.
"Enclosed is a portrait of yours truly and a clipping of my fight with Jack Courtney," Crouse writes. "It took place in Paterson, N. J. The promoter told me to get in shape and he is trying to match me with Benny Valger, the French featherweight. I saw Valger working out with Benny Leonard at Long Branch one day last week and he tears into me the way he tore into the light-weight champ, a certain sailor is going to see some fireworks."

"You will notice that Courtney 'stopped' me some time ago (referring to the clipping enclosed in the letter). We were boxing a semi-windup in Newark and during a mix-up he bumped my 'domes' and I received a beautiful two-inch cut over my left eye. It bled freely and the referee, Mr. Jim Savage, stopped the bout and Courtney gets credit for stopping me."

Meets Happy Howard.
"I met Happy Howard wandering around New York one day last week. He is on the U. S. S. New Hampshire and has been across several times. Our little ship is high and dry up on a dry dock with her starboard side smashed to smithereens. I had been left behind on that trip and was safe at the Y. M. C. A., where I was training for my Courtney bout."

According to the clipping Regan enclosed in the letter, he gave Courtney a bad beating. He beat his opponent in seven of the eight rounds and that he has improved in his boxing since he left St. Louis is borne out by the newspaper article to the effect that "Regan was fast as a flash and his punch carried considerable force."

Continuing the article says: "Regan gave Courtney a terrific lading in the fifth round and from then on Courtney was merely a chopping block for the clever sailor boy."

MILITARY OFFICIALS
MAY PLACE FOOTBALL
STARS IN QUARANTINE
Question Will Be Taken Up at Meeting of Officers of Big Ten Tomorrow.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The question of placing football players under quarantine during the first two weeks of scholastic year is to come up for discussion at the meeting here tomorrow of faculty representatives of Big Ten colleges, it was learned today.

The meeting was originally called to obtain the opinions of the faculty representatives on the advisability of lifting the quarantine rule during the period of the war, but the announcement that the military authorities at Minnesota insisted on two weeks quarantine beginning Oct. 2, has brought about a situation which may result in the cancellation of all early season games.

If Minnesota is to be placed under quarantine for two weeks then it is reasonable to believe the same fate awaits other schools in the conference, faculty representatives now here in case the meeting tomorrow is unable to find a solution of the question of a quarantine and the consequent cancellation of early games. It is said the faculty committee may require officials of the War Department at Washington to waive the complex situation.

BETHLEHEM WILL PLAY
PATERSON ON SATURDAY
The Bethlehem soccer team, present holder of the National and American cup championships, will open its 1918-19 season Saturday against Paterston, according to the schedule announced by the officials. Only six eleven have entered the competition.

The remaining teams will play Sunday with the following schedule: Scottish-Americans vs. New York and Merchants Ship F. C. vs. Babcock & Wilcox.

QUIMET THROUGH WITH

LAFAYETTE CLUB ENDS BOXING CAREER HERE

Former Future City House Sold,
Lessees Declare; Referee
Stops Last Fiasco.

One more chapter of deep tragedy was added last night to the history of boxing in St. Louis when, after Referee Walter Heiser had stopped the bout between Sailor Jarabek and Charles Stapp in the second round, the Lafayette Club, which was born of a submarine chaser at an Atlantic port.

To those who have followed the game here last night's blowoff came as no surprise. Bad matchmaking, combined with an utter disregard of the public's feelings on the part of the boxers, combined to hasten the end. Tommy Sullivan, guiding light of the Future City A. C., which had the field largely to itself here for a number of years, strove valiantly to keep pugilism alive in St. Louis.

Tommy made mistakes, being, of course, nothing more than human. But the onus of blame for the steady decline of interest in boxing must be placed on the boxer himself. When Sullivan recently retired from the sport after the organization of the Lafayette Club, he had but little success in the boxing business. He had but little success in the boxing business.

DREWES TO PLAY BROWN IN CITY TENNIS FINAL

Present Titleholder to Oppose
Youngster on Triple A Courts Saturday.

Ted Drewes, present city and State tennis champion, will defend his local honors against Wray Brown, the McKinley High School youth, in the finals match of the tournament now in progress on the Triple A courts Saturday afternoon. These two reached the finals by winning their semi-finals clashes yesterday.

Drewes was forced to extend himself to eliminate Walter Haase in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5. Brown, on the other hand, had little difficulty in defeating W. Satterfield, another of the younger stars, 6-2, 6-0, 6-0.

While Drewes, owing to his experience will be the favorite in Saturday's match, local followers of the sport, expect Brown to give him a hard tussle. Brown in the present tournament had played sensational tennis, as his record in the early matches will attest. In the clash with Satterfield, he rarely gave his opponent a chance to get fairly well started.

In his early matches, Brown captured seven love sets out of 11 played, while he lost only 10 games out of 76 played. Ed Harris had the greatest success against him in the third round, he being eliminated, 6-3, 6-2. Brown also trimmed the veteran, Billy Bascom, 6-4, 6-2. Brown's record for the tourney is as follows:

Just, 6-0, 6-0.
Meyer, 6-0, 6-0.
Harris, 6-3, 6-2.
Bascom, 6-4, 6-2.
Satterfield, 6-2, 6-0, 6-0.

Drewes, on the other hand, has been returned the victor in only two love sets out of nine played, his second round match with Smith being won by default. In the four matches he played he won 61 games against 21 for his opponents.

Pasmore to Play Diesel.
The finals in the boys' tournament also was reached yesterday, when George Pasmore to play Dan Diesel for the honors Saturday. In going into the final round yesterday, Diesel eliminated Bliekamp in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3, while Pasmore was "blacked" to the wire in a four-set Stapp showed an inclination to mix it.

Today's play in the tournaments will be confined to the doubles. In one of the matches, the new team of Drewes and Von Reppert is scheduled to oppose Albers and Godlove.

SPORT SALAD BY I. C. Davis

The Sick Man.
The Sultan had an army of a hundred thousand Turks. He marched them into Palestine and there they blew the works.

He had the Kaiser's orders to defeat the British troops. But they couldn't stand the pressure and the Turks are now in coops.

CHORUS.
It was the Sultan! It was the Sultan! The sick man the world has ever known! If he were wiser he'd shake the Kaiser. And let him fight his battles all alone.

Turkey Day.
The way the Turks are being rounded up, it looks like a big Thanksgiving.

In fact we might say without fear of contradiction that the Turks got the stuffing knocked out of them.

See where Benjamin Leiner, alias "Benny Leonard," and Gershon Mendeloff, alias "Ted Lewis," exchanged courtesies but not titles.

Low Tandler is of the opinion that he could beat Benny Leonard and at 133 pounds ringside. As Benny would be too weak to stand up at that weight, better make it bedside.

Some Draw.
Charley Stapp and Sailor Jarabek "fought" a two-round draw at the Lafayette A. C. last night. When the boys found they would draw about 133 apiece they drew the line at fighting and withdrew from the ring at the urgent request of Referee Heiser who drew his own conclusions as to what was taking place. As a result of their actions the only thing the drawing cards will draw is their breath. Here endeth the fight game in St. Louis.

In Dry Washington at That!

WHEN Charles Schwab was inspecting the Seattle shipbuilding yards he was accompanied by his friend, Dr. Eaton. Both are eloquent speakers, the crowd always calling for more. It was horse and horse between the two as to which could tell the most impossible story on the other.

One day while addressing a few thousand shipbuilders, Dr. Eaton scored a base hit with this:

"Boys, I'll tell you something in strict confidence. A few days ago, when in Tacoma, Charlie and I went aboard a new ship that was nearly ready to go in service. As we walked along the clean, new deck, Charlie noticed some large lids and wondered what was inside. So the sailors came and lifted the hatch, and when he looked down into the hold, he said, 'Why the damn thing is hollow!'"

Then "Charlie" came to bat and told how on leaving Portland "Doc" rushed to him in great excitement with the announcement that he had lost his baggage.

"It's too bad!" I said. "How did it happen?"

"Why, the cork came out!" moaned the doctor. —Cartoons Magazine.

Too Forward.

At a parade of a company of new-called-up men, the drill instructor's face turned scarlet with rage as he slated a new recruit for his awkwardness.

"Now, Rafferty," he roared, "you'll spoil the line with those feet. Draw them back at once, man, and yet them in line."

Rafferty's dignity was hurt.

How It's Done.

A CLUBMAN had been reading a great deal concerning farming, food conservation, etc., and it occurred to him that it might be a good idea for him to have a try at the game. Turning to an old friend in whose wisdom he had absolute faith, he asked:

"Say, old man, what does a chap have to do, anyway, to be a gentleman farmer?"

"It's very simple," said the other. "One simply stays in town all winter and makes money." —Harper's.

A Knock for Father.

MOTHER and father were sitting in the resting room one night when little Willie suddenly glanced up from his school books.

"Say, mamma," he exclaimed, "the teacher was talking to a class about evolution or something like that today, and I want to ask you a question."

"Yes, dear," replied mother, turning to the youngster, "what is it?"

"I want to know, mamma," said the boy, "if I am descended from monkeys."

"I don't really know, Willie," answered mother, with a quiet little smile. "I never saw any of your father's people." —Philadelphia Telegraph.
